In autumn
the greenery of the world changes to a yellow-brown mosaic of splendid color.
With a different class and a different goal, another year of learning begins.
The year,
a medley of new friends,
greater expectations, examinations, crowned royalty, and exciting moments in sports, harmoniously blend, forming an active era.
After winter reigns and spring crowns
the world with life,
the hope and joy of summer rules.
Doors of opportunity open to seniors;
juniors and sophomores climb up a rung in their ladder of life.
The worth of the school year is evaluated.
Everyone departs his way . . .
The colors presented on the first day of autumn,
the stinging cold of winter weather, the magic sense in a spring breeze, and the sun and hope of a summer's day are all enclosed within the realm of this school year and its book,

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Gladys Furno
(1898-1964)

When, musing on companions gone,
We doubly feel ourselves alone.

—Sir Walter Scott

Don,
You're senior year is over and you'll now be striving for new and better things. So I wish you the best of God's Blessings!
I will wish you luck and time this summer!
Sincerely,
Maynard
Class of '66

Though Summer's flowers now are gone,
there is no hint of snow,
And while cool days are rolling on,
still Autumn's gold leaves glow;
And much is left in all the waste,
for nature doth enfold
The Summer's wonder and the waste, in silver, blent with gold.
The Autumn winds are blowing sweet o'er every hill and plain,
And where the Winter snows shall lie the seeds shall spring again.

Inspiration, spirit and determination exhibited by both the Student Body and the team once again brought glory to the Fort Vancouver Football squad. This year's team was experienced and sure. The Senior and Junior Lettermen formed a tough core of leadership that shaped the team's football skills, while Coach Furno and his assistants, Jerry Campbell and John Eagle, directed the team and taught them the finer points of grid-iron play. Though plagued by tough breaks and soggy fields, our team once again proved that a Trapper team is a top-notch squad, full of spirit, no matter what the odds.

The coin showed "Heads" and the Trappers began the game with a mighty kick-off and a first down in two plays. The Hudson's Bay Eagles were on hand to recover a fumble and proceeded to the Trapper one yard line, where they also fumbled. Mud flying, the battle continued. A rest was welcomed by both the teams and the spectators, with the half time score of 6-0 in favor of the Eagles.

Midway through the third quarter the Eagles began to feel the threat of the Trappers once again, but they also had their eye on the Peace Pipe. The Trapper spirit never failed and the statistics of the games proved the effort of our team.

The Eagles, with a score of 19-0, took home the Peace Pipe — for a visit of one year!

Meeting with the teams of Southwest Washington, our fleet-footed Trappers demonstrated the superiority of a Fort team. Terry Ramberg, the new coach, cracked the whip of the 1965 Cross Country track team to accomplish a win of five meets and four losses.

The team, according to Coach Ramberg, showed real interest as well as good hustle in both practice and meets. This year's team also had four participants in the state and district meets. Morgan Edwards, Sr. placed 23 out of 200 runners, Curtis Paddock, Soph. placed 33, Warren Forrest, Soph. placed 61, and Dan Monahan, Sr. placed 115. With the end of the state meet, Coach Ramberg, his team, and Fort Vancouver can look back on a very successful season.

Never too old . . .

Tension had been mounting all week and finally on Friday the students let go. An enthusiastic welcome met Fort Vancouver alumni in the annual Homecoming Assembly. Memories of alumni were reminisced as they remembered their years of being a Trapper and experiencing this eventful week. All showed their Trapper spirit by wishing our team the best of luck. Highlighting the remarks given were those of Lucius Bain, who, although not present in person, expressed his thoughts on a tape sent to the Student Body. Kiggins Bowl witnessed the spirit and determination that brought the Trappers and Hoquiam Bears to a 6-6 tie.

A cheer from the crowd and a sparkling crown announced our new Queen, Emmi Johnson. With a warm smile and a poised voice, Queen Emmi invited everyone to the Homecoming dance to be held the following evening.

Poor Bear.

"Our Queen."

That famous Trapper spirit.

A Trapper break-through!

Melodies drifting through the air, soft rustling of girls' skirts, and an occasional "Oh, pardon me!" set the pace for the annual Homecoming Dance. Alumni and students greeted each other amid sombreros and cacti.

Dance music was provided by Ken Golden's Dance Band. Entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Ron Fraiser, who sang "Granada," "People," and "Night and Day."

Mauri Smith had the honor of crowning Queen Emmi.

The music began once more as Queen Emmi and her court led the Queen's dance.

Through the eager effort of Jeff Zygar, student body president, and the student body officers, we have had a very successful year at Fort as far as government is concerned. We at Fort have always had this form of democratic government where our students can participate in and become familiar with the political views of the nation. With the aid of our counselors and faculty we have conducted our school with the traditional Trapper spirit of democracy, preparing ourselves, as students, for our job of citizens of tomorrow.

Functioning as a useful and important establishment in school affairs the Student Council promotes good relations between the school and the community and works for more efficient methods of handling annual school activities. It also collaborates with the Judiciary Court in revising various parts of our constitution.

Each year the Judiciary Court Judge, assisted by the advisor, appoints two court members from each of the three classes. They were Liz and Mike from the Senior class, Warren and Lola from the Junior class, and Kathy and David from the Sophomore class. Acting as advisor was Mr. Cummings and judge was John Jacobson. The Judiciary Court has been responsible for all legal matters concerning the constitution and student government of Fort Vancouver.

Wearing question marks, Girls' League Representatives answered questions and directed new students for the first week of school. This is a part of the "Big Sister" program. The Senior and Junior girls had additional responsibilities of orienting the transfer students from the Minnehaha area. "Big Sister" sessions begin in early May.

A speaker from the Y.W.C.A. presented an assembly entitled "Your Attitude is Showing." while a style show put on by the Girls' League members added a sparkle to the assembly program.

During December the T.U.B. lost its familiar identity and through the work of the Girls' League turned into a real Santa's workshop. "Santa Snap" proved to be a huge success, as both Mr. and Mrs. Claus were able to take a few days off and help out. All profits were given to the Salvation Army.

The end of April brought the girls' favorite dance: Tolo. Pennies were scraped up and each gal invited that "special guy."

"Getting to Know You" was the main theme of the first dance of the year. It was sponsored by the Boys' League. Everything from long underwear to garbage cans were seen on Red & White Day. Larry Hobbs, Chamber of Commerce Manager, served as master of ceremonies at the assembly. He awarded prizes provided by Vancouver businessmen to those students displaying originality, colorfulness, tradition, and beauty and ugliness.

Helping Vancouverites check their cars for safety is a service project of the Boys' League. One of their most informative assemblies is when guest speakers from the various military organizations present a picture of each branch of the service. This helps the boys choose in which area they wish to enlist.

The tradition of presenting the White Christmas dance was carried out again this year. However, for the first time the league chose a court to reign over the dance.

The Boys' League has proved to be very successful.

AFS SEMI- FINALISTS: Vicki DeAntonis, Debbie McPherson, Robin McMullen, Rick Blaker.

The Student Senate is made up of the first and second semester advisory presidents. It has kept the many advisories in Fort Vancouver up to date on its many activities. One of the main functions of the Student Senate this year was the rummage sale.

Admission to the Fort Vancouver Chapter of National Honor Society is based upon leadership, service to the school and community, character and scholarship. Membership is limited with two installations each year. The programs were presided over by Carl Haisch with the assistance of their advisor, Miss Blair.

The Student Affiliation Committee is a representative group of the student body and faculty organized to promote good foreign relations, friendship, and exchanges between Fort and schools in Europe.

Travel, studies and life in a foreign country await American Field Service candidates. They were chosen as student finalists in early November. They have begun to wait anxiously for New York's decision.

Robin and Vicki are applying for the summer program and Debbie and Rick are applying for the school program. Charlene has been selected to attend our sister school, Viktoria Luise Schule in Hameln, Germany. She will be living with the Jonhanning family for the year 1965-66.

WINTER

When winter stalks across the land, and trees stand stark and bare;
The snow comes down on silken wings,
and gives them ermine cloaks to wear.
It gives the mountains sable robes,
and dresses hills in white;
And beauty lingers there by day,
and lights white fires by night.

Plagued by bad breaks and adverse luck, the '65 Fort Vancouver Basketball Team fought through another season. Playing in a tough league is always hard, and this year's AA league was the toughest in a long time. Fort, however, was equal to the task. Sweating and straining, the men in red fought for that win, game after game. Many times the final score failed to reflect a close game. Beginning with some tough non-league games, Fort lost to Klamath Falls 68-46, and went on to down South Salem 58-47. McMinnville edged by Fort 77-73; Mark Morris downed the Trappers 60-53; Astoria squeaked by with a 65-62 win; R.A. Long managed a 67-57 steal; and Evergreen lucked out with a 53-50 victory. Good shooting and Trapper mistakes gave Kelso a 64-50 win; and Hudson's Bay, after a hotly contested game, just barely pulled out a 47-41 face-saver. Lady Luck smiled on Evergreen to give them a 63-51 edge, and the men in red came out on the short end 70-52 in the contest with Columbia River. Finally, the Fort Vancouver Trappers evened the score with a 77-56 upset over Battleground.

All told, the 1965 basketball squad can be proud of the job they did.

Two points. Predicament! !

Grunts and groans, the wail of overworked muscles, two straining Grapplers and a coach frantic with the excitement of a close match. These were the sights and sounds of the '65 wrestling season.

Wrestling, one of the most strenuous sports, approached a unique form of art this year. Beginning with a profitable five-match winning streak, the Trapper Grapplers overwhelmed some of their most tenacious opponents.

Under the firm guidance of Coach Campbell, himself an accomplished wrestler, the Varsity and "JV" squads demonstrated their superiority over all others. The '65 squad also has nine district and potential state contenders. They are Don McAtee, Sr., 103; Chris Wilcox, Sr., 112; Ted Caravas, Sr., 120; Pat Lee, Jr., 127; Dick Jeffry, Jr., 145; Kent Walsh, Sr., 154; Bill Rathbun, Jr., 165; Dave Cone, Sr., 191; and at heavyweight, Pat Hayden, Sr.

FIRST SEMESTER CHEERLEADERS: Larry Davenport, Bob McIrvine, Paul Beck.

Adding a spark to games and rallies were the three boy cheerleaders. Each semester there were three new boys who took over and worked up cheers for the various games.

The rally squad meant hard work, roaring pep rallies, victories and the solemn unity of a loss. Early in the mornings, on game days, cheers rang through the halls.

The squad had a sharp look this year with six girls in bright new outfits.

Yell Queen, Janis Wheeler, represented the squad's ideas and views on the Student Council.

WHITE CHRISTMAS BALL

On a cold wintry eve, couples met beneath a sky of glimmering, tinkling bells enclosed in scrolls of old fashioned music manuscripts. "Silver Bells," the White Christmas Ball, was planned and presented by the Boys' Club.

The Parkrose Dance Band provided soft melodious music for the evening.

Couples waited anxiously as John Lowe announced the first Queen to reign over a White Christmas Ball. Approval was shown by the crowd as Jan Howarth was gracefully escorted to the throne and crowned Queen Jan I.

Entertainment was presented by The Cocksmen, a four-man combo.

Chris and Jan.

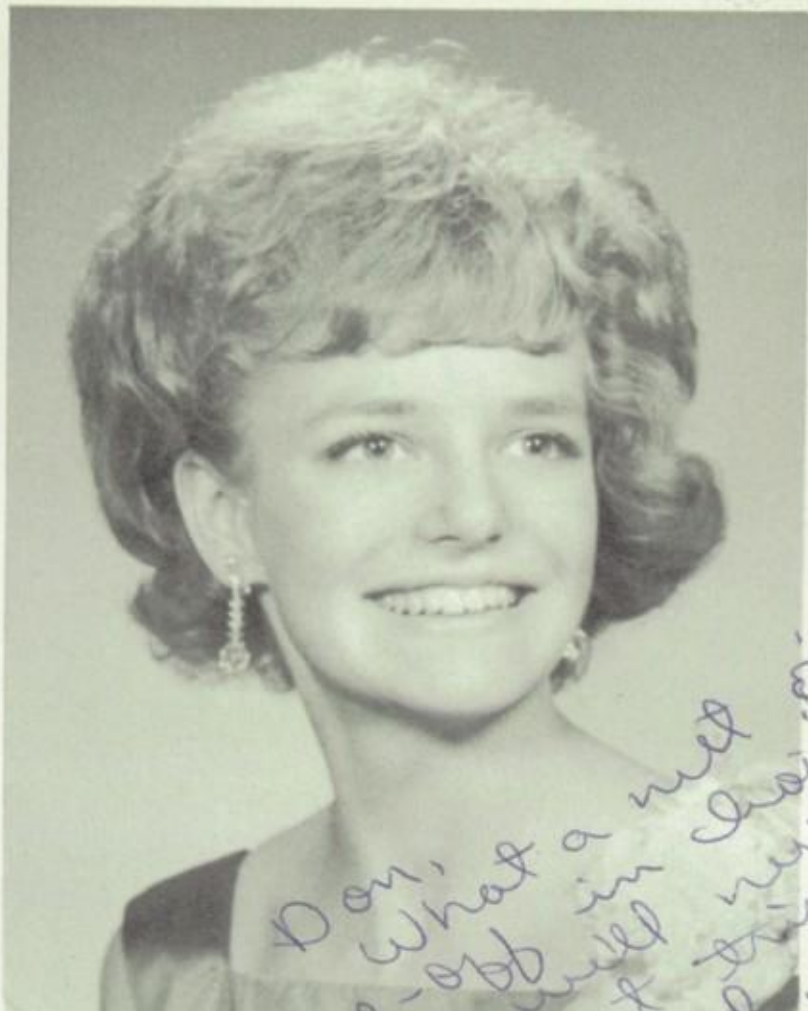

I crown you Queen Jan I.

Providing a complete and accurate record of everything that occurred at Fort was the aim of the yearbook staff. Pictures of all events and everyday activities had to be taken, page layouts planned, and copy written giving descriptions of the year that could recall events to memory far in the future. The lights burned many long hours while harried staff heads revised layouts, corrected copy, and took care of the innumerable last-minute details. Frustrated staff members tried to find a certain word for the copy, and searched for page layouts that were balanced and yet included necessary elements. When the book lay completed, all who worked so diligently breathed a sigh of relief and realized that without the students who created the 1965 ALKI, they could not have made a record of it.

COLUMBIA LOG

A small cluttered room, appropriately known as the "Rat Room," became headquarters for the journalism class. Under the direction of Mr. Schlotfeldt, these talented young people spent much time in learning the fundamentals of good news reporting and effective coverage of events. through experiments with creative writing and layout techniques, the "Columbia Log" staff edited regular issues of an outstanding school newspaper as well as compiling a unique literary magazine. They acquainted themselves with practical as well as creative aspects of writing.

SPRING

Now the bright morning-star, day's harbinger, Comes dancing from the east, and leads with her
The flowery May, who from her green lap throws
The yellow cowslip, and the pale primrose.
Hail, bounteous May, that dost inspire
Mirth, and youth, and warm desire:
Woods and groves are of thy dressing,
Hill and dale doth boast thy blessing.
Thus we salute thee with our early song,
And welcome thee, and wish thee long.

The times of high school have passed — for us.
The endless days of study suddenly,
abruptly,
come to an end.
The fleeting days crammed with love and life and friendship and activities vanish.
And we are left with nothing but times passed and an ache in our hearts for the things we must leave behind — for we cannot turn back, these days are gone forever.
We must go on and plunge into life and the future.

Don, fun in his cheer, cheer, advisors, cheer,
and all the other years give known you. Best of luck in the future —
I know it holds a lot for you.

The crack of the bat breaks the spring silence, and the '65 baseball season is underway. Again, as in previous years, the first baseball game signals strenuous team competition and frantic spectator participation.

Under Coach Vernon Westrick our '65 Fort Vancouver baseball team began another successful season, assured of a first or second place position. Though the printing date of this book makes it impossible to include the season's record, it will definitely be a good one.

Spirit, determination and the will to win marked the '65 Trapper track squad. Under the able leadership of coaches John Eagle, Terry Ramberg, and Jerry Campbell, the "cindermen" exhibited superior skill in almost every category. As this book goes to press there have been five meets, all ending in victory for the men in red. One by one, North Catholic, Evergreen, Camas, and Kelso were overwhelmed by the Trappers. All in all, this writer feels assured in predicting eventual victory for the '65 Trapper track squad.

Don, I've been

Netmen Displayed a "Racket" of Talent

Tennis, though employing rather small teams, this year remains one of the most vigorous and exciting sports. As usual the tough and hard-hitting Trapper tennis squad has been working hard and the outcome is proof of this. Though the competition is unusually hard, our team in red is looking forward to the first-place position.

Coach's help is appreciated.

Don't look at this as a sweet guy and year I hope to see the future in the future. Always Mike (Ulowetz)

Millionaire

Turning back in time to 1916, talented members of the Senior class portrayed a family of eccentric millionaires in Kyle Crichton's comical play, "The Happiest Millionaire."

Alligators (captured by Mr. Biddle himself in Florida), boxing, and war, Drexel-Biddle Bible Classes composed of ex-prizefighters, plus the philosophies of Mr. Biddle were the varied interests of the family.

Sending Cordelia, the only daughter in the "madcap" family, to a boarding school in New Jersey leads to a series of hilarious incidents that help upset the family routine.

SHIMMERING FANTASY

April 23, 1965. This was the night that the girls had anxiously awaited and each one proudly escorted her favorite beau into a world of tinkling, shimmering chandeliers. Tall silhouetted buildings enclosed the dancing couples in the enchanted ballroom.

Bob Lealos was chosen by the attending females to reign as King Bob I for the evening.

The vocal talent of Lynn Owen added a special sparkle to the dance music of the Hudson's Bay dance band.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS ASSOCIATION

G.A.A. membership is open to every girl at Fort. A variety of activities are always scheduled and this year was no exception. In December a Christmas party was held for all the new members and installation of the officers. Homecoming, which is the largest single activity, is planned and presented by the club. A dad-daughter night and bike-hike add a splash of fun for the girls, also service to the school by selling football programs.

An Active Year, a Successful Year

There is a sport for every girl and every interest. The seasons are full of volleyball, basketball, deck tennis, badminton, ping pong, and softball with tournaments for the various sophomore, junior and senior teams. The outstanding players are selected to participate in All-Star games and Play Days.

To earn a G.A.A. letter is the goal of every member. In order to earn one a girl must have a total of 100 points; 60 in athletics and 40 in school activities. She must also maintain a "C" grade average.

The Future Teachers of America is an organization which helps students gain an insight into the teaching profession. The main activity was the planning of the South West Washington District Conference, "Education Pays Dividends." In April, "Teaching Career Month," members visited and observed classroom activities in various grade schools. Among the many pot-luck dinners, for which FTA is noted, a special dinner was held for the members' parents. The highlight of the evening was a talent show presented by the girls.

Future Homemaker members under their advisor, Miss Oglesby, became more informed as to the importance of good home and family life. Activities of service to the community and giving the underprivileged children a party at Christmas, plus other activities helped promote an appreciation for the joys received from service to others.

This year at Fort has given me a tremendous experience which I will remember throughout my life. There have been good and bad days, just like school always has, but, looking back, I do know that I wouldn't like to have missed my senior year at Fort Vancouver High. I already know that I will come back to America. Then I would like to give a great big "Danke schon" to everybody who helped to make this year an unforgettable one.

Brigitte Haway

Even though a year is long enough to make me homesick sometimes, but it is too short when I think of the wonderful time I have had over here.

Fort is not just a splendid old building that we see. It includes all wonderful teachers and every single enthusiastic student. This wonderful experience will always remain in my mind. And I will always be happy and proud to mention about our "Great Fort," wherever I go, as "My School."

Nerry and I (Pat Mugo) have enjoyed going to Fort Vancouver High School very much for the past three years. We will always remember Fort as our Alma Mater. The friends we have made will never be forgotten. We only wish if some of them (friends) will end up visiting our country to see what we'll be doing.

We thank the teacher as well as students for putting up with us with those African accents!! We have learned a lot from here and we hope to put what we've learned to use. We both came with good eyes but one ended up with four!
